

RSVP by Tuesday, December 6 to:
Fay (262.335.4800) - Washington County Land Conservation
No registration fee

Milwaukee River Watershed Conservation Partnership

FARMER KICKOFF MEETING

Thursday, December 8

11am-2pm

Roden Echo Valley Farm
5545 County Hwy Y, West Bend

Agenda

11:00 am - Welcome & Introduction to Conservation Partnership Program

Mike Patin - Natural Resources Conservation Service

- Producers Making a Difference for Cleaner Waters

Farmers: Ross Bishop, Dave Brunnuell, Allen Dornacker, Jim Melichar

LUNCH IS PROVIDED AT NO COST

- Three Key Ways to Controlling Nutrient Loss on Your Farm

Amber Radatz - UW Discovery Farms

- Manure Applications on Cover Crops

Andrew Craig - Department of Natural Resources

Come Hear About Incentives Available To Support Conservation Practices

- Milwaukee River Watershed Conservation Partnership - Healthy Soils, Clean Waters, Smart Business
- Washington County Land Conservation Department
- NRCS
- MMSD – Partners for a Cleaner Environment
- Ozaukee County Land Conservation Department
- The Conservation Fund
- UW – Extension Washington, Ozaukee and Sheboygan Counties

The Milwaukee River Watershed Conservation Partnership is a coalition of agricultural producers, agribusinesses, your County Conservation Departments, UW-Extension, and land trusts coordinated by the Milwaukee Metropolitan Sewerage District (MMSD) and the Natural Resources Conservation Service. The MRWCP supports conservation practices that promote healthy soils in order to mitigate future flooding, improve water quality and support thriving agriculture in the region.